BRIMHALL TESTIMONIAL TO FEATURE NEXT WEEK

GREAT HONOR DAY SLATED FOR FRIDAY

To Be Held at Edgewood During Evening

The statement that there is nothing new under the sun has been challenged by our industrious and original student body officers. In order to prove it they have started something that is absolutely new. An Honor Day a night and out of doors. On the evening of May 20th all loyal B. Y. U. students will leave the campus for a mile tramp to Edgewood a beautiful spot in the River Bottoms. There all sorts of things have been planned for their amusement. The honors will be awarded in a very fitting manner. In the past awarding of honors has been too much of a joke and in order to overcome this it has been decided that only honor students may award honors. To make the awarding impressive and give the students something that they can enjoy at the time and that will spur every one to try for honors. The pins, sweaters etc., will be awarded in a series of tableaux.

After the honors have been awarded and a musical program has been heard and five famous old student body, presidents have made themselves known and said what they think about the school in relation to its past and future, the Social Leadership class under the direction of Mrs. Algie Ballif will conduct games and dancing. There will be something to eat if the men are wise enough to provide a cook and everyone will have a gay time.

One thing more. The official reigns of office will be turned over to the new student body officers in a very impressive manner. It will impress the new officers with the responsibility of their offices and give the students a chance to get acquainted.

This idea for honor day will undoubtedly become a tradition and every effort is being made to make it worthy of being handed down from generation to generation. Such people as Vesta Pierce, Ernest L. Wilkinson, Wanda Boyack, Helen Candland, Ray Olpin, Ross Bean, and our student body officers are on the job so you know what to expect.

Juniors Give Seniors Official Annual Bath

Thinking that the Seniors needed (1) to be washed of all past failures and (2) to be brought to earth again, after having conducted the successful Senior Day Excercises the Juniors entertained the wearers of the "Mortar Board" at a "ducking party" at Castillo Saturday.

The trip was the consummation of plans laid by the Junior Class and was the annual entertainment of those aspiring to be "At-Bats." Nearly every member of the two classes was present, including the wives of the growing list of Senior Benedicts. The excursion was conducted with a number of trucks, and the Seniors pronounced the event as the most successful informal happenings of the year. The Juniors proved themselves jovial entertainers and returned to school this week with "spongy" brains calculated to absorb no end of material for the final exams.

STATE TRACK LAURELS WON BY U. OF U.

"Aggies" Are Close Second; Mile Run is Feature

The state collegiate track meet held at Logan last Saturday was won by the University of Utah by a score of 63 to their nearest competitors 51. The Utah Aggies were second with 51 points and the B Y. U. third with 14.

The meet was attended by the largest crowd Logan has turned out for Track meet and the meet itself was an unequalled success. Two state records were broken and one tied. Kerr of the U. of U hung up a new mile record, winning from Brown of the Y and Hart of the A by a good margin, in the new state record time of 4:32 1-5. "Fat" Andrus of the A C hung up a new record in the Javeling, heaving it 150 feet 6 inches on his first try. The hundred yard dash record was tied by Louis Ballif, Aggie sprinter, when he ran the disance in 10 flat.

The feature races of the day were the mile, the half mile, and the relay The mile was by far the most interesting inasmuch as all three of the star distance men were entered. In the half however, Kerr of the U of U. did not star, leaving Hart and Brown to fight it out for first honors Hart led the field in the mile for the first two laps when he was headed by Brown who led up until the last 300 yards when Kerr began his record breaking sprint, winning from Brown, his closest competitor by a good ten wards. Hart was a close third. Brown, however, was disqualified by the inspector of the course, who claimed Brown had cut in on Hart. Hart was awarded second and Wakefield of the Y was given third.

The half mile was hard fought but Hart was picked the winner by inches The Aggie men led by a good distanct most of the way during the last 60 yard Brown rapidly closed the gap until the finish many picked him as the winner. The half mile relay was won by the U. of U. by inches. The U. of U. got a big lead to start but "Hunky" Dorius and Louie Balliff, the last two Aggie sprinters, cut this lead till at the finish there was only a few inches difference between Ferguson, and Ballif, the last two men The Y team finished a fairly close third

Ken Weight was the Y's principal point winner with three seconds Bunk Brown took second. The Y team also scored three thirds.

Prominent Men of State and West will be in Attendance; Thursday, May 26th will be Brimhall Day----Committee appointed to make celebration a Great Success.

The grand finale of the school year one which however, can only be a small expression of the esteem in which President George H. Brimhall is held because of his twenty-two years of service as President of the B Y. U, will be the Brimhall Testimonial Thursday, May 26, 1921. This Testimonial which will feature the annual gathering of the Alumni is certain to make the reunion the largest and most successful in the history of the school.

Thursday, May 26th will be Brimhall day, from beginning to end. A special program will be given by the Student Body in devotional and at six P. M a reception will be given to President Brimhall in the Ladies' Gymnasium, at 8 p. m. the official Brimhall Testimonial will be held in the Stake Tabernacle. Hundreds of former students, now prominent men of the west, will be in attendance at both these meetings.

Prominent speakers.

Among the prominent speakers who have already accepted invitations to speak are: James E Talmage, of the quorum of the twelve and a school mate of President Brimhall's; Richard R. Lyman of the Quorum of the Twelve, representing the Church-School Commission; Adam S. Bennion Superintendent of Church Schools; James L Barker of the University of Utah and formerly of the B. Y. U. faculty; Horace H. Cummings, former Church School Superintendent, Edwin S Hinckley, Superintendent of the State Industrial School and formerly Dean of the School of Education; Coach Eugene L. Roberts, a product of one of President Brimhall's "bad boys;" Jos B. Keeler, who has been in the presidency with President Brimhall during most of his service; Alice L. Reynolds and Inez Knight Allen, students of the President, the latter also having served under him on the English faculty for over a score of years; and George S. Ballif representing the present and past student bodies If President Heber J. Grant is in the state he will also be in attendance. Otherwise Thos. N. Taylor, Vice President of the Board of Trustees, will preside An original tribute in the form of a poem will be read by one of President Brimhalls' students.

Musicians in Attendance.

"Old Glory," an original creation of the guest of the occasion will be sung by one of his students Other musicians who have studied under him and who will take part on the program include A. C. Lund, David Reese, Emma Ramsey Morris, Clair W Reed and others. Professor Florence Jepperson will be in charge of this part of the testimonial

Brimhall Sayings issued.

A neat pamphlet containing the program of the evening and some of the numerous crisp sayings of the guest are being mailed out as invitations to the various Alumni members. Because of the changes of address of these people, however, and other obstacles in the way of reaching by mail all interested, the Alumni officers want it understood that all friends, especially Alumni members are invited without any individual notice. The Alumni officers have been joined by the Board of Trustees and the student body in making the testimonial a success, and these three organizations are all to be represented

The Brimhall Testimonial will be followed by the official graduation excercises on Friday at 9 a. m. also in the tabernacle, to be followed by the Alumni Banquet and Senior play in the afternoon and a great pagent and Alumni Ball in the evening.

"Bee-Yee" Staff Announces Winners

The contest for the Literary-Comic Magazine aroused a marked interest in those aspiring to art and letters. Enterprising students submitted cartoons, stories, cover designs and poetry Competent judges were selected to decide upon the winners. After careful consideration, A Ray Olpin received the first prize in the story contest It was a tragic tale of the land of the Cherry Blossoms with the significant name of "On the Road to the Meido"

This typical Japanese story of the love and final sacrifice was cleverly and artistically written by one who had the opportunity of seeing a cross section of the life of that race at close view, and is a very commendable effort.

Sadie Ollerton received second prize for her humorous story, "When a Man Decides to Marry" This humorous tale of matrimonial difficulties is diverting and interesting

Miss Maurine Olsen's cover design was selected as the best among many which were good examples of the versatility and originality of our art students From the standpoint of art and human interest Miss Olsen's cover is undoubtedly an excellent piece of work.

The commendable cartoons of the three B. Y. U. Senators was drawn by Jimmie James. The judges were pleased with the contributions and state that they typify progression among our students.

Dance Revue Great Success

Friday evening, Mrs Algie Eggertsen presented her Asthetic Dancing girls is a revue of the most famous dances The stage was set to represent the great outdoors in spring and formed a fitting background for the charming ladies who did the dancing.

Several of the dances were composed by Mrs Ballif herself to represent ideas which she had and could not find expressed elsewhere Among these dances were "columbine and Aarlequin," "The Spring Dance" and "Grecian Dance." Most people did not realize the talent that Mrs Ballif possesses and to many it was a revelation to think that she could not only train the girls to dance so beautifully but could compose dances as well.

Miss Alice Taylor in the Hungarian Dance No 5 was especially fine. The dance was difficult and was well done. The costume was especially striking and the atmosphere of the dance was well sustained Miss Muriel Smart in "Anitras Dance" was graceful and deserving of much praise Perhaps the most beautiful dance of the evening was the Grecian dance in which Mrs Ballif herself starred At the close of this dance she was presented with a basket of roses by her class The other dances were all pleasing and the costume effects were bewitching The girls all seemed to have the spirit of their dances and are deserving of much credit. It was the best piece of work of its kind ever seen in Provo.

Seniors Present Play at P. G. and Payson

The Seniors made their debut with the "Wrong Mr. Wright" last Wednesday in Pleasant Grove. The play is a three act comedy and is being coached by Miss Mary Woolley, also a Senior. The comments of "Grovarians" were very favorable to both the casting of the parts and the manner in which the play itself was presented. The business manager reports that some money was netted and also a "peck of onions."

Last night the cast played the same comedy in Payson, to a good sized, appreciative audience. One week from tonight the Seniors will present the same in College Hall to the student body and other friends.

The proceeds of the play will be used to finance the project decided upon by the class. This will be an elaborate plush curtain for the stage costing nearly five hundred dollars. It will be installed in time for the presentation of their "Wrong Mr. Wright.'

COURSES ANNOUNCED FOR SUMMER SCHOOL

Special Work to be Given Stake Leaders

The Summer School Catalogue was published last week and is ready for distribution at the office of the registrar. Students and prospective students may secure the same by asking for it. An interesting phase of the work is the plan worked for correlation between the Church and the "Y". Concerning this the catalogue says:

The remarkable results which have followed the Church leadership training work offered by the Summer School last year have merited a continuation and an extension of the plan.

In order to provide specifically for the leadership training in the various divisions of Church work, the First Presidency have called to the summer school three persons from each stake of Zion. The Stake Teachers-Trainer will come for six weeks to take the teacher-training course. A representative from the Social Committee in each stake will prepare for recreational leadership. A Relief Society worker will come to specialize in problems of family welfare work.

The Correlation Committee of the Church will plan ways and means by which the work done this summer will be repeated later in Stake institutions for the benefit of ward officers in the respective departments. These delegates to the summer school will be responsible for carrying out the work and plans here developed in their respective stakes upon their return.

The teaching staff of the summer school will teach the courses in the main. Special lectures and experts, however both in and out of the state will be used in conection with the work.

Regular College work in addition to the special feature, will, of course be given.

Honor Banquet Next Saturday

The Annual 'Y' Honor Day Banquet will be held Saturday, at the Hotel Roberts The Board of Control has appointed LaVon Billings chairman of the Banquet Committee and he has appainted his assistants.

The committee plans to have every honor man and woman attend the festivities Prof T. Earle Pardoe will be Master of Ceremonies and a real live program has been arranged.

The time selected for the banquet seems very propitious as the night before the official presentation of honors will be made.

A good select list of "toasts" and "toasters" has been compiled and those present will receive feasts in friendship, knowledge, ideals and B. Y. U. Ideals.

All are invited who have received the official "Y" for any activity. For particulars see La Von Billings.

Reservations must be made by Thursday.

SENIORS GIVE OFFICIAL PROGRAM IN CHAPEL

Class Consists of Twenty Graduating Members

Friday the Seniors held the center of the stage. "We graduate only once," said president Ross Bean as he marshalled the class to the stand. The program was worthy of our Senior dignitaries in every respect. Prayer was offered by Rufus Jacobson. Ernect L. Wilkinson gave the Senior Day address, welcoming the student body to the excercises. After paying tribute to our Alma Mater Mr. Wilkinson explained that service is the best and most effective interpretation of a B. Y. U. education. "Our graduates must not only live up to their own individual standards and ideals, but they must be worthy of the high standards set by former graduates," was the theme of the address.

The Senior song bird, Laurel Miner sang a beautiful solo and Miss Grace Nixon read, "A Few Bars in the Key of "G'." The selection was well rendered, true to Miss Nixon's dramatic ability. After an overture by the orchestra Matt Tanner read a very amusing "human-nature" selection, "The Wrong Girl." Heloise Day, the wise woman of the Seniors gave some secrets that the class thought no one had ever guessed. The student body was pleased to learn that even Seniors have some dark secrets.

During the afternoon the entire class were guests of the Provo Commercial Club who demonstrated their usual hospitality by taking our worthy Seniors for a long automobile ride through Utah County, from Spanish Fork to Lehi and back again. The class reports that Utah county is looking especially prosperous this spring.

The dance was one of the merriest of the entire year and the Seniors found that their caps and gowns served very well for dancing costumes. The music was the best that we have had this season. Taking all things into consideration we feel that if the Seniors do every thing as well as they conducted Friday's program they are capable of representing the B. Y. U.

CLASS HAS PROMINENT MEMBERS

The Senior graduating class this year has twenty members, all students who have been active in student body affairs. Ross Bean, the president, was a lieutenant in the army and during his years at college has demonstrated his ability as a leader. Mr. Bean has always been a prominent figure in the political affairs of the school, and is an active member of the Board of Control. George Ballif, student body president, orator, singer and debator has made his name famous in B. Y. U. circles. Grace Nixon, student body vice-president, is one of the leading dramatic students and a splendid debator. Ernest L. Wilkinson, editor of the White and Blue, has won distinction as an extemporaneous speaker and debator in addition to his attainments as a journalist and campaign manager. Frank Newman, our veteran debator will this year receive the highest honor that the student body can give to a debator. Mary Woolley, coach of the Senior play and literary editor of the Banyan, has also done very efficent work as vice president of the Public Service Bureau. Heloise Day is another B. Y U. debator and literary student Miss Day has several medals and honor pins to her credit. These are only a few examples of a class that can boast quality and scholarship as its distinguished characteristics.

BALLIF VALEDICTORIAN
EFFICIENCY STUDENT NOT YET SELECTED

George S. Ballif has been chosen Valedictorian by the Faculty Committee. This appointment was expected because of Ballif's remarkable record as a scholar and leader. The winner has been a member of the debating teams winning from "Utah," "Aggies," and "Princeton." He has piloted the student body thru one of its most successful years, and has at all times been a good consistent student. The Seniors are proud of the choice of the faculty.

Another honor to be conferred upon some student is that of the Efficiency Medal. This is equally as large an honor as the honor of being valedictorian and will be presented at the Honor Day excercises Friday. It is presented by the Commercial Club and is conferred upon the most efficient student —judged by B. Y. U. ideals. The basis of judgement includes three points, scholarship, character and service. To win this honor, therefore, means that one must be more than a "book-worm." It gives a chance to those who in addition to carrying a full course, have rendered true and loyal service to the student body. After all, it is the application of ones knowledge and ability that should be rewarded. If one devotes all his time to studies he can certainly get higher marks than those who also render service to others. We can depend on it therefore, that when the efficiency student is selected he will represent the best the "Y" has in scholarship, character and above all—service.

Vera Hinckley

—Y—

JUDGE BY ITS FRUITS

In this paper is published a fist of typical B. Y. U. products. No claim is made as to completness. It represents a hasty attempt to compile a record, from memory, of former "Y" students. There are hundreds who are left out and should ultimately be included

The White and Blue hopes however, that it will act as "leaven" and that when the registrar is released from other work, as he will be next year, that he will find time to compile a more full report including the name of the Alumnus, his work, record and present address.

The compilation of prominent men and women speaks for itself. No other school in Utah, or, we believe, in the West, has turned out as many successful citizens, according to the numbers enrolled. A hasty thot of the ideals of the people listed, and the public service they are rendering makes the only true monument of the "Y"—(or any other school)— its fruits—that much more colossal.

DRAMATIC STUDENTS PRESENT PLAYS

Wednesday evening, May 4th in the Little Theatre, the second of a series of one-act plays was presented by the advanced students of the dramatic art department for the benefit of the Drama Circle The plays were "Three Pills in a Bottle," coached by Miss Jane Hibbert, and "The Bracelet," coached by Miss Ina Creer. A large and responsive audience witnessed the performances which was well enjoyed The work of the coaches was worthy of special mention.

The cast of characters for the plays were as follows:

"Three Pills in a Bottle."

Tony ... Leland Buttle
Tony's Mother ... Elaine Christensen
The washerwoman ... Lyle Nelson
The Washerwoman's soul ... Virginia Crockett
The Scissors grinder ... Paul Keeler
The Scissors grinder's soul ... Glen Guyman
A gentleman ... Carlyle Maw
The Gentleman's soul ... Royden Dangerfield

"The Bracelet."

Mr Harvey Western Norman Thomas
Judge Banket ... Le Grand Noble
Martin ... Mark Bean
William ... Kilton Stewart
Mrs. Banket ... Margaret Hare
Mrs. Western ... Lela Maudsley
Miss Farren ... Florence Rowe
Simithers ... Nellie Clark

The plot of "Three Pills in a Bottle," is unusually cleve and unique Leland Buttle in the role of the little invalid boy who sacrifices the means of his recovery to feed the souls of his three visitors displayed good dramatic talent. The character work of Elaine Christensen was exceptionally good.

"The Bracelet," is a problem play, rather subtle in its nature, but the response given it by the audience proved that it was appreciated, Miss Lela Maudsley must be complimented on her work in the role of the haughty wife. She displayed real dramatic ability. Miss Ina Creer, the coach, is to be congratulated on her presentation.

The dramatic art department has endeavored this year to prepare students for play reading. As a result

RICHARD CONDIE WINS VOCAL CONTEST

Receives Gold Medal; Miss Knudsen Second

The annual singing contest was held last Tuesday, May19th, for the best vocal solo. The medal for which was given by the Senior class of 1919.

Mr. Richard Condie took first place with Lillian Knudsen a close second. The other contestants were Miss Virginia Christenson and Mr. Carl Christensen.

The following is the program:

Lillian Knudsen—"Thou Brilliant Bird" from the opera, Pearl of Brazil.....by David

Ballad, "The Old Refrain".....by Greisler

Virginia Christensen—"My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice, from opera Samson and Delilah. Salin Saens

A Birthady Ballad, ...Woodman

Carl Christensen, "Within the Sacred Dwellings" from the Magic Flute Mozart.

Myself When Young. Ballad, from Persian Garden—Lehman.

Richard Condie Aria, "With All Your Hearts. from Elijah. Mendelsohn.

Pale Moon by Logan. Ballad.

The solos were exceptionally fine, in fact so well done that the judges Mrs H. Master, Mrs. Norma Poulton Bullock, and Professor George Fitzroy, found it difficult to decide upon the winner. Mr. Condie exhibited exceptional ability in the rendition of the aria from Elijah. It is considered in the musical world to be the most difficult of tenor solos. Mr. Condie shows wonderful promise. It is hoped by all that he will is to be hoped that he will be able to continue his vocal studies and likewise Miss Knudson, for her high tones were exceptionally excellent. The other two showed splendid work and show promise of becoming musicians out of the ordinary. Professor Fitzroy pronounced the decision, congratulated all the contestants and the school in being able to produce such talent in a town of this size.

Jex Oratorical Contest Friday

Your last and only chance this year to win a medal will be next Friday, May 20th. This is the day of the traditional Jex Oratorical Contest. It is open to all students, both College and High School. Contestants will have the advantage over previous orators to choose their own subjects.

As you all have your pet subjects now is the chance to make others believe as you do and be interested in the things you are interested in.

The prize offered is a gold medal awarded by Mr. Heber C. Jex, a former student of the B. Y. U. who is interested in everything that the school undertakes and is always trying to do something to promote and further its progress.

President Brimhall Delivers Baccalaureate Address

Sunday, May 15th, President Brimhall delivered the Baccalaureate address to the graduates of the Richmond High School. He has also received an invitation to deliver the Baccalaureate address to the graduating class of the Utah Agricultural College on May 29th.

These invitations are indicative of the high esteem in which President Brimhall is held throughout the state. The invitation to address the wearers of the "Mortar Board," at the state college at Logan is especially complimentary and a good criterion of our president's ability as an inspirer of men.

Spanish Club Holds Entertainment

The members of the Spanish Club claim credit for an interesting time at their last meeting Professor Cummings, talking in Spanish lectured on the early conquest of Peru. Our interest and ability to understand was largly due to his choice of the common terms.

A debate is being prepared for May 19th at 4:30 o'clock to be given in the Art Gallery. This promises to be a unique affair, as the usual flow of eloquence will be given in Spanish. Other entertainments will be furnished and you are asked to come and see some of the gratifying results that have been attained in the foreign language department this year. Much is due to Professor Cummings practical and progressive methods.

"Y" HIGH WINS TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP

Doubles Team is Sensation of Meet

The B. Y. U. High School tennis doubles team won the State High School Championship on the University of Utah Tennis court last Saturday coming through the tournament undefeated. The tournament was run off purely elimination style, and the Y team played three matches in quick succession winning all handily and not losing a set during the entire series. The Y. High School team from Granite High School 6-4, 6-3, in the first match. East High School next fell before the champions by the same score. The finals between the B. Y. C. and the Y. H. S. was a 6-2, 6-3 victory for the 'Y' pair Hunter Masson and Fred Dixon compose the championship team, and both received gold medals from the U. of U. for their championship work. Den Heag "Y" singles man, lost his second match and was eliminated.

The college team did not fare so well at Logan and were beaten in straight sets by the Aggie racket wielders. The singles were played first and resulted in a 6-1, 6-2 victory for Khan, a Persian who is playing for the Farmers. The doubles were won by Lund-Loveless in straight sets, 6-2, 6-2, 7-5. The last set was sensational and hard fought from the start but was finally won by the Aggie pair.

A return game with the Aggie is scheduled for the Y Courts next Saturday, and the Y players are determined to turn the tables on the Northerners.

Girls Demonstrate Masculine Initiative

Friday, May 15th, marked girls' day—twelve hours of decidedly striking events. From a few remarks gathered and conversations overheard from the ranks of the stronger sex, even they enjoyed it. One handsome gallant said with a sigh that it was a genuine pleasure to turn over the responsibilities of so many matters of social decorum once in a while. Do you know this? Some people like to take the initiative, that is if an opportunity affords.

The opportunity came on May 15 to those deserving it and the results were:

1. The transfer of the divine power to rule school society from the hands of the masculine to those of the opposite sex. Of course the girls while holding the power were kind enough to treat the boys as they would like to be treated.

2. A special program in the forenoon conducted by the girls and women of the school. It consisted, among other numbers in the presentation of the short story medal by Mrs. Elsie C. Carrol, a short talk by Mrs. J. W. Knight, vocal solo by Miss Florence Jepperson, Mrs. Hannah Packard, and Mrs. Olive Hickman.

3 The feature of bringing back and honoring important Alumni as shown in the program and talks.

4. The afternoon reception by the girls for the women guests and the matrons in which Mrs. W. J. Knight and Miss Florence Jepperson were each presented with a basken of flowers. A splendid program followed including solos, duets, readings, and short speeches.

5 A grand Girls' Day Ball. The rose of the crowd was rightly proportioned to the size of the hall and as the girls may be trusted in the art of entertaining little more need be added.

It was a decided success.

DRAMATIC STUDENTS

Miss Hibbert read, Monday evening, "Peg-O-My Heart" a clever comedy in four acts. The splendid character portrayal marked the main feature of the reading. Miss Hibbert's efforts were splendid.

The following Thursday, Miss Mary Wooley read "The Littlest Rebel," a civil war drama Miss Wooley's former experience qualified her for such a reading, which proved to be a finished production.

"The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary," read by Wanda Boyack is a clever three act comedy which furnished a lot of fun for the audience. The ways Miss Boyack's first experience, but she proved her dramatic ability.

Miss Grace Nixon will read "The Bachelor's Romance," but the date, which has not been fixed will be announced later.
